

Akihiko Sasaki

Representative Director and President

KRC provides consulting services for Official Development Assistance (ODA) worldwide, with every employee aspiring "to create a prosperous society." The world today is undergoing significant social and economic upheaval. Under this environment, KRC contributes to provide efficient, effective, and high-quality consulting services to meet the client's needs, in order to help developing countries become more resilient societies.

Koei Research & Consulting Inc., (KRC) proposes optimal solutions tailored to client needs to address social issues in developing countries, and KRC supports sustainable development. Our professionals offer comprehensive consulting services based on solid insight and sophisticated capabilities at every stage of the projects, from advising on policies and collecting sector information to formulating the master plans and implementing technical assistance projects.

ID&E-HD

KRC is one of the subsidiaries of Integrated Design & Engineering (ID&E) Holdings, which is a holding company established in July 2023. ID&E Holdings have more than --- operating companies, including Nippon Koei Co., Ltd., the No.1 engineering consulting firm in Japan.

About Us

Economic Development

Education &
Human Resource
Development

Social Development &
Peacebuilding

Ambition and Creativity

Health & Well-being

Design & Engineering

Major Clients

- Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
- International Banks (ADB, WB, etc.) and UN agencies
- Foreign Ministries
- Japanese Ministries and local governments

Address

Kojimachi Mid Square 9th floor., 4-2-7
Kojimachi, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo
102-0083, Japan

<https://www.k-rc.co.jp/>

Economic Development

Various forms of assistance to improve the business environment in developing countries, such as strengthening industrial competitiveness and supporting the development of special economic zones

Education & Human Resource Development

Research and technical assistance in the fields of basic education, higher education, and inclusive education, as enhancement of operational capabilities of educational sectors, teacher training, and development of teaching materials

Social Development & Peacebuilding

Research and technical assistance to support the socially vulnerable and promote rural development, in the fields of promoting employment, enhancing community capabilities in conflict-stricken areas, and encouraging fair and reliable public administration

Health & Well-being

Research and technical assistance in the health and social protection/welfare sectors, with a focus on health care systems, health insurance systems, noncommunicable diseases, nutrition, and measures for aging society

Design & Engineering

Research, planning, design, and supervision of facility construction & equipment procurement in the health/medical care, education, and vocational training sectors

KRC has more than 100 professionals in 5 areas - Economic Development, Education & Human Resource Development, Social Development & Peacebuilding, Design & Engineering, and Health & Well-being-, providing efficient, effective, and high-quality consulting services in line with the needs of clients.